Indigenous women beyond the ten-year review of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action

The Commission on the Status of Women,

Convinced of the commitments assumed in the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women,¹ the Beijing Platform for Action,² the Millennium Development Goals,³ the Durban Plan of Action⁴ and the General Assembly resolution on the Second International Decade of the World's Indigenous People⁵ to guarantee the economic, social and cultural well-being of women,

Recognizing that indigenous women are part of the diversity of the women of the world,

Reaffirming the recommendations on indigenous women and girls adopted at the third session of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues,⁶ which emphasized equality, non-discrimination and the recognition of the value of the diversity of the cultural identities and forms of social organization of indigenous women,

* In accordance with rule 69 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council.
